

I feel strongly that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would less Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections by allowing companies that consider me a "current customer" to contact me. In the last year, Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home by significantly limiting calls. The FCC should not take any action that would put the interests of corporations over the interests of individual citizens.